

WILL ANSWER WITH HIS HEAD

French Government Has Sent Ultimatum by Warship to Pasha of Casablanca.

MURDER OF EUROPEANS

ARABS PREACHING HOLY WAR IN MOROCCO.

Washington, Aug. 1.—The state department today received from the United States Minister Gummere, at Tangier, a brief cablegram stating that several foreigners had been murdered at Casablanca, Morocco, and that "a foreign vessel had been dispatched to Morocco." The minister asked for no instructions from the state department concerning the trouble, and none were sent him. It is believed at the state department that there are no native-born Americans in Casablanca.

Paris, Aug. 1.—The pasha of Casablanca will answer with his head to the French government for the general security of the city. This is an ultimatum which the French cruiser Gallie, due to reach Casablanca this morning, is conveying.

The French cruiser Forbin, now at the Azores, also has been ordered to proceed to Casablanca immediately. Action by the French government, will not, for a moment, go any further than this. The Gallie has been ordered to take on board all Europeans desiring refuge.

Action Demanded.
The French newspapers generally advise that the government administer a lesson to the sultan. They declare that the governing board is directly responsible for the occurrences at Casablanca, as it persisted in maintaining the present pasha there in spite of the protests of the diplomatic corps at Tangier.

The Edelar says it considers that France has been caught in a trap, and that the occupation of Oudja by France has only served to fan the Muslim fanaticism without demonstrating the power of the government.

Advices received by the foreign office here confirm the reports that five Frenchmen, two Spaniards and one Italian were killed and their bodies thrown into the sea.

Lack of Decision.
The Temps attributes the outbreak at Casablanca largely to a lack of decisive French action in Morocco. It calls attention to the fact that the real assassins of Dr. Mauchamp, the Frenchman, who was killed in Morocco City last March, have not been punished, and that the governor of Morocco City has been neither imprisoned nor dismissed.

Course of action with Germany's vengeance in 1895, when a German subject was killed, and insists that energetic action is a national duty as well as a duty to the police.

A well known diplomat in an interview tonight stated that Italy would send a warship, as well as Spain, to Morocco, and that a composite force of French, Italian and Spanish troops would be landed at Casablanca to restore order in co-operation with the sultan's forces. All the signatories of the Algeiras convention will be informed as to the steps which it is deemed necessary to take to exact satisfaction.

HOLY WAR PREACHED.
Arabs Bent on Exterminating the European Residents.

Tangier, Aug. 1.—Dr. Merle, who arrived here last night upon the German ship which brought a number of Jews and other refugees from Casablanca, is the bearer of a report to the French charge d'affaires here, showing that the slaughter of Europeans in Casablanca was an outcome of a holy war preached by the Arabs for the extermination of Europeans.

On Monday a number of Arab chiefs entered Casablanca and demanded that the harbor improvements work cease. The pasha of Casablanca pointed out that this work was being done with the sanction of the sultan, whereupon the chiefs replied that the sultan was no longer their ruler as he obeyed the Christians. They then began to incite the natives to exterminate all Jews and Europeans from the town.

Eight Foreigners Murdered.
On Tuesday morning the natives began their attack by stoning a European, and when the man tried to flee he was surrounded and hacked to pieces. This was the signal for another attack, and soon as the danger became known the French and Spanish residents rushed to their respective consulates for protection. During this flight at least eight were murdered.

M. D'Euville, the French consul, demanded that the pasha provide an escort for the recovery of bodies. The pasha pleaded at first that he had no cartridges, but upon further representation he finally supplied an escort. When this rescue party, however, reached the scene of the attacks it was charged by a number of Arab cavaliers and forced into flight.

Refuge on German Ship.
In the meantime, while the Jews and Europeans were taking refuge on board the German ship, the Muslims began to attack the laborers employed in the harbor. They fired upon the shore boats and killed several men, whose bodies later were burned. One workman who tried to swim off to a ship was shot in the water.

There was one German and one French steamer in the harbor at Casablanca, when the German steamer pulled out.

It is expected that Casablanca will be invaded by 20,000 Arabs today.

The French cruiser Gallie, which left here last night for Casablanca, should arrive there today.

The refugees arriving here say the situation at Casablanca is grave, but that there have been no further attacks on foreigners.

CONCERTED ACTION.
Spanish Warship Ordered to Proceed to Morocco.

Madrid, Aug. 1.—The Imparcial insists that the murderers of Spanish subjects at Casablanca must be punished. The paper believes that European rivalries, as well as the ferocity

CHOATE PLEADS FOR HUMANITY

Opening Debate Upon Subject of General Arbitration at Peace Conference.

AMERICANS FIND SUPPORT

PROSPECT OF THE PROPOSITION CARRYING.

The Hague, Aug. 1.—In the opening debate today upon the subject of general arbitration before the special committee dealing with this matter, M. Asser (Netherlands) expressed the opinion that the extension of arbitration was the only practical way to bring about limitation of armaments. Joseph H. Choate and James B. Scott of the American delegation then reviewed at length the American position dealing with arbitration from the standpoint of humanity as well as of international law. Germany, Great Britain and Mexico supported the American proposition.

Mr. Choate's Speech.
Mr. Choate, supporting the proposal for the establishment of a permanent court of arbitration, quoted from the letter written by President Roosevelt to Andrew Carnegie on April 5, and read at the international peace congress in New York. He said that the instructions given to the American delegates were to see that judges of this court be selected from different countries and that they should represent the different systems of law and procedure and the most important languages in the world. The court was to be of such dignity, consideration and rank, that the best and ablest jurists could accept appointment there. The whole world must have absolute confidence in their judgments.

Question of Expense.
One thing that prevented more frequent recourse to The Hague tribunal as created by the conference of 1899, Mr. Choate said, had been the expense, and the United States proposed that the expenses of the new court and the salaries of the judges be borne by the powers in common. This would make the court free to whomsoever appealed to it. Mr. Choate then proposed that a suitable committee be appointed to frame a constitution for and decide upon the powers and character of the projected court, saying he thought it would be well to have seven judges instead of fifteen, so that the country representation be more general. In conclusion, Mr. Choate said:

Praise for Americans.
"It is six weeks since this conference first assembled, and there is certainly no time to lose. We have done much to regulate war and very little to prevent it. Let us unite on this great pacific measure and satisfy the world that the second peace conference really desires that in the future peace and not war be the normal condition of civilized nations."

The general opinion expressed tonight is that the real peace conference began today with the initiative of the American delegates, who are praised for their determination to carry a logical proposition that is believed to be the most important effort toward the pacification of the world.

of the natives, is responsible for the bloodshed at Casablanca, and advocates further the renunciation of the Algeiras agreement or the convocation of a new conference.

The Spanish government is drawing up a plan for concerted action with France to obtain reparation for the murders in Casablanca. As a first step a Spanish warship has been ordered to proceed immediately to Morocco.
